The location of Habitat Playa Romana is gorgeous. It is a beach front property with a sparkling sea. Beautifully landscaped, there is much to do right on-site: fishing, water skiing, windsurfing, and boating. You may just enjoy the lovely views walking around the hotel grounds. There's a soothing peacefulness that makes Habitat a great place to unwind, take your time, and appreciate the European life style. It's a great for a family holiday, too.

UNIT DETAILS

Units are spacious and kept absolutely immaculate. One-bedrooms sleep a maximum of four or five, and two-bedrooms can accommodate up to six. No matter which unit you choose, you'll sleep in air-conditioned comfort. All units have a partial kitchen that provides sufficient supplies for cooking, if you tire of the good French restaurant at the hotel. Stand on your balcony and enjoy the lovely views of green shrubbery and ponds on the property.

DESTINATION HIGHLIGHT

A charming little coastal resort town, just north of Castellon de la Plana, Alcossebre is on a stretch of unspoiled Spanish coastline called the Costa Azahar or Orange Blossom Coast. Surrounded by areas of great natural beauty, Alcossebre is perfect for a laid-back holiday, for enjoying sports such as golf and scuba diving, or for enjoying the coastline and countryside, hiking and cycling. Alcossebre's history goes back to the Moorish occupation. Visit Xivert Castle, originally Moorish and captured by Jaime I of Aragon in 1234, located on a hill overlooking the area.
